

Narrative Example – Questions to Consider

You will be listening to an example taken from an assessment of a year 4 student. Consider the following questions:

Do you know who the main characters in the story are?

Do you know when or where the story takes place?

What's the main initiating event?

Are there any resolutions or consequences?

Does the student consider emotions and feelings of the characters, do they consider different perspectives?

Comment on the overall structure

Consider the grammatical accuracy of the student's sentences

Comment on the range of vocabulary used – are there any vocabulary errors or difficulties?
